

You must provide the Trustee with a copy of your federal tax return every year of your case. Deliver the tax return to your attorney's office who will email it to the Trustee's office.

All tax refunds during your entire case must be turned over to the Trustee. Failure to turn the refund over to the Trustee immediately will result in your case being dismissed and will also result in a limitation of your ability to file future bankruptcy cases.